

Subject: Preliminary Result of AUN/SEED-Net Collaborative Education Program for JFY 2019

Despite a record number of applications and careful consideration by the Screening Committee, we are pleased to announce that the following proposals have passed the preliminary selection as the candidates for the Collaborative Education Program, Japanese Fiscal Year 2019.

No.	Consortium name	ASEAN University A
1	Global Academia-Industry Consortium for Collaborative Education (GAICCE) Program	Chulalongkorn University
2	Sustainability and Environmental Engineering	Malaysia-Japan International Institute of Technology, Universiti Teknologi Malaysia
3	Japan ASEAN Collaborative Education Program (JACEP)	Universiti Malaya
4	AUN-KU-NAIST Excellence Program of Advanced Materials Technology for Sustainable ASEAN Development	Kasetsart University
5	Consortium of Master in Construction Management (MCM)	Ho Chi Minh City University of Technology

Each candidate is required to develop the proposal into a full action plan, so-called “Action Book”, and submit it to AUN/SEED-Net Secretariat by 29 March 2019. Failure to submit a satisfactory Action Book by the deadline is subject to dismissal of the candidacy.

Each candidate will soon be contacted by one of our Program Officers to schedule a meeting to share further instruction.